HANDSOME PRESENT.-We happened to step into the uffice of the Adams Express Commany, on Saturday evening, and found our selves currounded by a large number of the employes of the Company. We inquired of seemed "mum." Presently Mr. F. X. Donahue arrived, and the object of the general re-Joicing and meeting was made known by Mr. confronted Mr. Donahue, and in the following very meet and appropriate little apeach presented him with a messive and magnificen gold watch and chain:

MR. DONARUE: I have been selected by the employee of the Louisville Office of the Adams Ex ployee of the Louisville Office of the Adams Express Company to perform the pleasing task of presenting to you this small trinket in token of their admiration of your character as a business man, as a kind, appreciative and impartial employer, as a gentleman and as a friend.

I am instructed to assure you that your employee, without a single exception, heard of your determination to discouncet, yourself from us, with sincere regret, and unite in wishing you, in whatever avocation you may purpose to embark, the full measure of encess to which your excellent qualities of head and heart so eminently entitle you. Let this, then, remind you, Mr. Bonahne, that ir retiring from your late position you carry with you the profound respect and admiration of an all.

Mr. Donahne was completely dumfounded but, recovering from his agreeable aurprise, he accepted the present, and responded in the following very happy and pointed little ad-

This however, I will say—that while I have always er deavored faithfully to discharge the duties incument upon me as Agent, I feel that whatever of an case I have met with in the administration of the cese I have met with in the administration of the affairs of the Company is due in a great measure to the prempt, cheerful, and intelligent assistance rendered by yourselves.

The presentation of this handsome present was a deserved compliment pald to a ciever and worthy gentleman, Mr. Donahne, who, for a long time, has been the efficient business manager of the Adams Express Compa my, has resigned, and will enter into another branch of business in this city. He has been an active and clever business man in our community, and while we regret to lose him, in his former espacity, we are giad to know that his successor will endeavor to imitate him so nearly that our merchants and business men will not regret the change. We wish him success in all his undertakings, and, with the gentlemanly attaches of the office under his administration, hope his life may be a long, pleasant and prosperous one.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT. - Railroad accidents have become a matter of almost daily occur reuce, and ecarcely an exchange that we pick up does not chronicle some accident of this kind. The practice of jumping on or off near the Nashville depot, in the following manner: W. H. Nicholson, of Bardstown, came in on the accommodation train, and having business to transact at the machine shop, a point which the cars pass at a rapid rate, he attempted to jump off, and in so doing his toot slipped and be fell beneath the cars, which passed over him, severing both of his iegs from his body. It is not thought that the unforinnate man can recover. Mr. Nicholson is an old and respected citizen of Bardetown.

man, whose name we now forcet, was robbed of some twelve handred dollars in this city in the following manner: In coming off the mail boat early one morning he was accosted by a of the Southern Confederacy; storming of man, who offered to show him a hotel. The well fortified cities, burning of immense parties got to drinking, and the victim was quantities of cotton, grain, etc., and everytaken to the Gathright House, on Market street, and when he recovered from the ainpor occasioned by the liquor he found himself minus some tweive hundred dollars. Suspition centered upon a man, who specceded in making his escape. Officer Bligh telegraphed to different points, giving a description of the man, and a short time since tearned that he was arrested in Philadelphia. He at once started there, and arrived here on Friday night, having the prisoner in charge.

The Commercial Hotei, at Jefferson ville, Indiana, received three guests from Evansville, last week. The Evansville Jourpal recites their names and virtnes as follows: Their names are Richard Guseaway, convicted of assault and battery, with Intent to kill Dr Yates: sentenced to two years. Office of the Superintendent and Medical Director U. S. A. General Hor-

Few of our readers, perhaps, are aware of the large amount of business which is daily ling to about three hundred thousand dollare, ransacted at the office of Surgeon R. H. Gilbert, U. S. Volunteers, Superintendent and ton, Penn. It is understood that information Medical Director of U. S. A. General Hospi- of his whereabouts became known to one of tale in this city and vicinity. So quietly and Mr. Clark's personal friends, who at once proharmonionaly, and withal so promptly, is this yast amount of business transacted, that few except those who may have had official busiiness with the office have any knowledge of what must be a subject of interest to ail, and particularly to the friends of the sick and wounded of the army in all parts of the coun-

When it is borne in mind that Louisville has been the great western base of the armies of the West, and that there are located in this city and vicinity, for the accommodation of several the object of the meeting, but all the sick and wounded, a number of the largest and finest hospitals in this country, some idea can be formed of the amount of labor which has been required of the Medical Department, John L. Overmeyer. The Chief Clerk, who in all its branches, for the proper care and treatment of the immense number of sick and wounded sent here, and of the excellency of the organization and system which has been established in the office of the Superintendent and Medical Director, under the abie and efficient direction of Surgeon R. H. Gilbert, Snparintendent and Medical Director, by which so much office isbor has been accomplished by so few men, and, considering all things, such moderate expenditure. This officer was among the very first who entered the service at the commencement of the war from New York City, where he was well known as an accomplished and skillful physician and surgeon, and he quickly earned for himself while Medical Director of the Department of Virginia, at Fort Monroe, a widely extended and enviable reputation for ability and energy, as an administrative and executive officer, and which he has fully sustained since his assignment to duty fu this city. The transaction of business in this office is greatly facilitated, for the reason that it receives its orders directly from the Assistant Surgeon General, or Surgeon General U.S.A., ander whose control all general hospitals are placed, by orders from the War Department.

The advantages of this direct system of communication in all that pertains to the sick will readily be perceived, when it is known that since the first of August last, as appears by the records, sixteen hundred inrloughs have been acted upon; fifteen hundred special transfers of soidiers made to General Hospitais in their own States: three hundred discharged on surgeon's certificate of disability. Branches of the office labor, which are prepared for the action of the Superintendent and Medicai Director, under the careful appervision of Assistant Surgeon W. A. Gordon, U. S. V.

The transportation of the sick and wounded soldiers and officers arriving and departing from the city and their distribution to gen eral hospitals is in charge of Acting Assistan Surgeon W. E. Rogers, U. S. A., an energetic were drank, speeches made, appgs sung, and, and efficient officer, who, under orders of the superintendent and medical director, has received and admitted to general hospitals and forwarded to their homes nearly 49,000 transient sick men.

The number regularly admitted to general hospital is nearly twenty-eight thousand. One hundred and fifty thousand letters, and thirteen thousand and five hundred deacriptive lists have passed through the office. On a first average two hundred thousand communications would pass through the office to return those to duty admitted to the general hospitals, not to mention the numer ous inquiries, the large amount of business which must be transacted orally and reports and extra papers and letters passing through the office with indorsements reistive to un-corps of efficient efficers and sesistants, among the palalist residence; of former times at anything pertaining to first cost would be as whom we must mention Hospital Siewards Joseph Jony and H. S. We have very little to say in regard to Western produce. We are not aware of any breadstuffs or provisions being under so large supply as to reduce prices, or to cause the least decire on the part of configures and holders to submit to lower prices. In fact there is no evidence to lower prices. In fact there is no evidence of any surplus of western products. We have heard that the potato market is overstocked, and prices ruling low, and this is all that can be said as having any pretentions to cheap ness and low prices.

MACON, GA, May 11-A. M. The following dispatch, aunouncing the cap ture of Jeff. Davis, has just been handed me by Colonel Mentz, commanding the Second Divisior: HEADQUARTERS FOURTH MICHIGAN CAT'Y,

CUMBERLAND, GA., May 11. To Captain F. W. Scott, A. G. 2d Din: Sin: I have the houor to report that, at day light yesterday morning, at Jonesville, I sur prised and captured Jeff Davis and family, in cinding his wife and mother, together his Postmaster General Ragan, his Private Secre ary Colonel Harrison, Colonel Johnston, A. D. C. on Davis' staff and Colonels Morris and Lubbeck, and Lieutenant Hathaway; also, several important usmes, and a train of five wagons and three amoulances, making a most perfect ancess. Had not a most publish mis-take occurred, by which the Fourth Michigan ud the First came in couff ct, we should nay

oue better.

This mistake cost us two killed and Lieu-enant Bartiett wounded through the arm, of e Four h Michigan, and four men wound the Fourth Michigan, and four men woused in the First Michigan. This occurred just at daylight. I shall move to the right without waiting orders from you, as directed, feeling that the whole object of the expedition is accomplished. It will take me at least three days to reach Macou, as we are seventy-five miles out and our stock much exhausted. I hope to reach Jenesville to night. ope to reach Jonesville to night. B. D. accounts for the collision between parts of the 2d and 3d divisions, and shows the zeal of the commands in pursuit. I have directed increased vigilance on the part of the command in the hope of capturing the other as seesing. Our dispositions of men are good, and so far none of the rebel chiefs have been able to get through. Breckinridge's sou was captured night before last, Il miles south of here. I will send further details as soon a J. H. WILSON, Brev. Mej Gen. MACON, GA, May 13-P. M. Hon E. M-Stanton:

L'euleuaut Colonel Haidze, commanding the First Wiccousin, has just arrived from Jonesville. He sirnak the trail of Davis at Dublin, Lawrence consty, on the evening of the 7d, and followed him closely night and day through the pine wilderaces of Allegstor Greek and the Green Swamp via Cumberland to Joresville. At Cumberlandville Colonel Hardia met Colonel Pritchard, with 150 picked men and borses of the Fourth Michigan. lardee followed the trail directly senth, while Pritchard, having fresher horses, pushed down the Ocmulgie, toward Hopewall, and theace by House Creek to Jonesville, arriving there arrived. From a citizen Pritchard learned that his party were encomped two miles out of the town. He made a disposition of his men and surrounded the camp before day.

Hardin had camped at 9 r. m. within two mites, an he riterward learned, of Davis, the trail being too indistinct to foliow. He puched at 3 a. m. and had gone but little more than one mile when his advance was fired upon by the Fourth Michigan. A fight ensued, both porties exhibiting the greatest determination refers the mistake was discovered. The firing was the first warning Davis received. The captors report that he herily put on one of his wire's dresses and started for the woods closely followed by our men who at first thought him a woman, but seeing his boots while he was running they suspected his sex.

The race was a short one, and the rebeil Precident was soon bought to bey. He bran dished a bowie knife, and showed signs of battle, but spredity yielded to persuasion of Coit's revolvers, without compelling the men to fire.
